THE FIDDLER OF DOONEY
(W. B. YEATS)

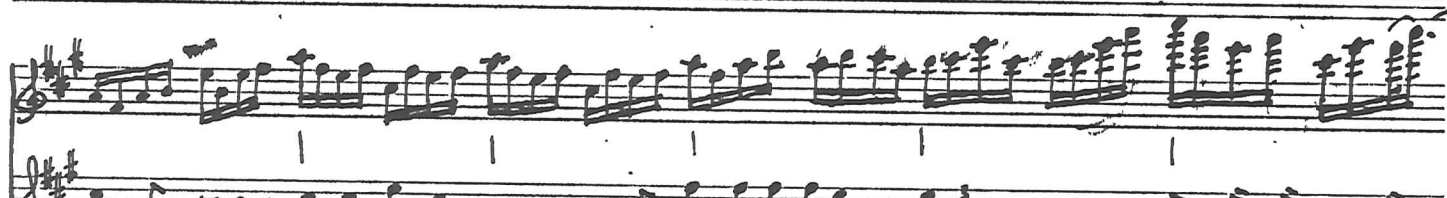

state, He will smile on the three old spirits, But call me first through the gate,

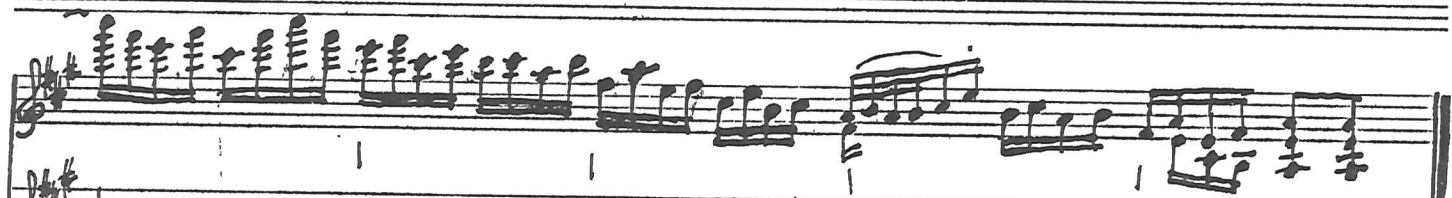

For the good are always the merry, Save by an evil chance, And the merry love the fiddle And the merry love to dance: And when the folk there spy me, They will all come up to me, With "Here is the fiddler of Dooney!" And dance like a wave of the sea.
